LOCATED IN CALIFORNIA’S HIGH SIERRA.

The Sequoia High Sierra Camp is located in California’s Giant Sequoia National Monument, between King’s Canyon and Sequoia national parks. The Camp is halfway between Los Angeles and San Francisco, approximately a five-hour drive from each city. The Camp access road is 63 miles from Fresno via Highway 180. Fresno is served by daily flights into the Fresno/Yosemite International Airport.

2015 SEASON RATES
Check the website for the current rate.
Rates include lodging and three daily meals.

2015 DATES OF OPERATION
June 14 to September 20 (weather permitting)

Keep close to Nature’s heart...and break clear away, once in a while, and climb a mountain or spend a week in the woods.
Wash your spirit clean.

—John Muir

THE PEAK EXPERIENCE

In California’s Giant Sequoia National Monument

www.SequoiaHighSierraCamp.com
Toll Free: 866.654.2877
The Sequoia High Sierra Camp offers a rare opportunity to explore the spectacular backcountry of California’s High Sierra – while enjoying the comfortable furnishings, guest amenities and attentive hospitality that are hallmarks of this secluded mountain retreat.

Surrounded by striking scenic beauty – from dramatic mountain peaks, to cascading creeks, tranquil meadows and star studded evening skies – you will come away rejuvenated from this unique wilderness camping adventure.

PRIVATE CANVAS CABINS
Etruscan-inspired architecture and contemporary furnishings provide comfortably elegant lodging – while reflecting the rustic wilderness grandeur of the surrounding Sierra National Forest. Nested along terraced hillsides, 36 private tented cabins feature plush-top mattresses, triple sheeted linens, feather pillows, down comforters, wool area rugs, reading lanterns and wood shuttered windows opening to majestic views. All cabins are within walking proximity of the private restrooms, shower house and Dining Pavilion.

DISTINCTIVE CUISINE
Three daily meals are included in the overnight rates, and all go far beyond traditional camping fare. Incorporating fresh, local and seasonal ingredients, the Camp’s healthy California-style cuisine is prepared fresh daily by a professional executive chef and served by an attentive staff in the al fresco Dining Pavilion. A compelling list of beer and imported wines caters to even the most discriminating palates.

ABUNDANT RECREATION
Just steps away from the Camp awaits a world of outdoor adventure. Like to hike? Numerous day hikes traverse the region’s meadows, canyons and mountainsides. Anglers can cast a fly-fishing line in lakes and creeks, and inspiration abounds for wildflower and photography enthusiasts. Make this your home base for exploring the spectacular Sierra backcountry – or simply relaxing with a good book and afternoon siesta.

GUEST AMENITIES
At Sequoia High Sierra Camp, you’ll enjoy the best aspects of a nature retreat without sacrificing the comforts of home! Our modern bathhouse facilities feature private showers and restrooms, with personal toiletries and towels provided. Guest cabins include daily housekeeping service and are furnished with all bedding linens and blankets. You’ll only need to carry in a lightweight daypack with clothing and personal essentials. A Camp Retail Store stocks basic necessities, just in case.

GROUP RETREATS AND SPECIAL OCCASIONS
With 32 spacious tented cabins and all-inclusive amenities, the Camp is ideal for small groups of outdoor enthusiasts. Ask us for ideas on how we can help host your wedding, family reunion, birthday or anniversary celebration, corporate planning session, teambuilding workshop, incentive or employee recognition program.

GETTING THERE
There are two options to reach the Sequoia High Sierra Camp.
Option 1: Drive your own car to a trailhead for an easy, well-marked 1-mile walk into Camp (this option is recommended).
Option 2: Hike a challenging 12-mile backcountry trail that begins in neighboring Sequoia National Park. Our website offers details, maps and directions for both drive-in and hiking access.

www.SequoiaHighSierraCamp.com